

Spring Map Competition: Map of Wong Chuk Hang

SPRING MAP COMPETITION: Spring Workshop seeks Hong Kong-based artists to create a neighbourhood map of Wong Chuk Hang. Map must be readable and clear and show certain key landmarks, but generally can be done in whatever style the artist wishes (hand-drawn or computer-rendered). The map that wins first prize will be used in Spring's materials in print and online. The runner-up maps may be used by Spring in the future (with an additional payment made to the artist).

Prizes:

Each 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will receive a cheque payment of HK$3,500, HK$1,500 and HK$1,000 respectively.

For 2nd & 3rd place winners, an additional cheque payment of HK$2,000 will be given if the map is later revised and used by Spring Workshop.

TO APPLY: Please send us by email 1-2 samples of your artwork with file size no more than 3MB in total and one reference person with name/telephone/email address to MapCompetition@springworkshop.org. Applications must be emailed by end of day June 24, 2015 (Wednesday).

Please also include in the application your name, email, phone number, school, program and year/year of graduation.

We will respond to all emails. Applicants chosen to continue in the competition will be notified and received more detailed information on what the map should show and also be invited for attending a briefing at Spring on July 4, 2015 (Saturday).

FINALISTS TO PREPARE DRAWING: July 5 – July 26, 2015
SUBMISSION DEADLINE: July 27, 2015 (Monday) 5pm HK Time

MORE INFO: The winning map will be printed at the back side of Spring's brochure and made available to the general public. A soft copy of the map will also be downloadable from Spring's website.
